I would like to be able to categorise different podcast in my own list. For example podcast episodes that are related personal growth, I would like to be able to put them one one category and so on. Be able to be more flexible.

To see what podcasts your friends are listening to right now.

being able to sort after different areas, interests e.g. music, films, and so on

Maybe some connection to other medias the podcast is using such as youtube, instagram etc.

A simple, easy to navigate, UI.
